3 Questions to ... Ms. Meriem LAHLOU Consultant and INJAZ Al-Maghrib volunteer

1. You have been an INJAZ volunteer for many consecutive years, what did you take from this experience?

One of INJAZ experience main assets would be that it provides a constant development opportunity for the volunteer. After a few years within INJAZ, I consider each experience with the certainty that it will bring me new and valuable lessons: the challenge of motivating students, engaging them in a positive group dynamics, being generator of creativity is the theme of all INJAZ programs and is always a source of novelty. The benefits of each program are often noticed in the long term. I am regularly contacted by students I used to mentor, seeking advice for a new business idea or for professional recommendations.

2. Tell us about your involvement in the INJAZ Volunteers’ Club?

I was invited to contribute in the creation of the INJAZ Volunteers’ Club by Ms. Leila Mamou, which is at the origin of this great initiative. The idea was to create a space where volunteers can evolve, develop and share their different experiences! This club’s ambition is to promote synergy among volunteers, provide mentoring for new volunteers and run the club, these lines interest me particularly. Le mot de la fin...

3. The last word ...

I would like to thank INJAZ for creating an environment enabling the development of entrepreneurship skills among our youth!
The reinforcement of the team!
